- ⁴ Based on long equity positions only.
- ⁵ Based on long equity positions only, and is also based on net asset value.
- ⁶ Sprott has agreed to institute a cap on the MER of the Series A units of the Fund at 2.5% until at least December 31, 2017. This cap will be achieved by Sprott absorbing or waiving fees or expenses of this Series that would cause the MER to exceed the cap. As a result, the MER of the Series A units of the Fund may be lower than the MER that would have applied had all of the fees and expenses that could be charged to the Series were in fact charged to the Series. Sprott may, in its sole discretion, cease to absorb or waive these fees or expenses at any time without notice.

The Fund is generally exposed to the following risks. See the prospectus of the Fund for a description of these risks: capital depletion risk, capital gains risk, class risk, credit risk, currency risk, derivatives risk, exchange traded funds risk, foreign investment risk, inflation risk, interest rate risk, liquidity risk, market risk, securities lending, repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions risk, series risk, short selling risk, specific issuer risk, tax risk.

Sprott Asset Management LP is the investment manager to the Sprott Funds (collectively, the "Funds"). Commissions, trailing commissions, management fees, performance fees (if any), and other expenses all may be associated with investing in the Funds. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing. The indicated rate of return for series A shares of the Fund for the period ended June 30, 2017 is based on the historical annual compounded total return including changes in share value and reinvestment of all distributions and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Mutual funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.
